

Defeat Horse Slaughter Proclamation!

“If we see cruelty that we have the power to stop and we do nothing we make ourselves sharers in the guilt.”

– BLACK BEAUTY by Anna Sewell

Today in America vicious cruelty takes place every day to horses that are not crippled, lame or sickly. Because sinister merchants of horse slaughter seek any horse they can get their hands on to cruelly murder and then ship the meat off to restaurant dinner tables in Europe and Japan.

The blood of these horses are on the hands of every member of Congress who refuses to work hard to pass any American Horse Slaughter Prevention Acts, such as the SAFE Act, long stalled in committees.

The time has come to get off the fence and stand as a leader to save innocent lives and restore a sense of decency to American life. The brutal torture and slaughter of horses must stop.

Therefore I call on you to enact legislation to “prohibit the shipping, purchasing, selling of horses and other equines to be slaughtered for human consumption”.

Because you have the power to stop this practice I have joined with the Speak Up For Horses rescue operation and call on you to act now.

Let there be no more delay, no more excuses and no further murders. Millions of horse-loving, humane and active Americans demand it.
